★ 15% of on-site visitor traffic in 2010 resulted from free and reduced admission programs, for children in need or at risk.

★ Responding to demand, CMFDL has expanded its programming to include music, science, art and cultural classes.

★ Our exhibits and programs are designed to support the social, emotional, physical and intellectual development of children and special needs individuals.

Why join the program?

Corporate Connect participants not only support CMFDL, but they also support the community. As a participant, you can provide unique benefits to your organization, your employees and your clients. You can also choose to donate admission passes to a charity or school of your choice.

Join other businesses, clubs and philanthropic leaders who recognize the importance of providing opportunities for our children to play to learn as they develop into leaders of tomorrow!

testimonials

“ The health of families is of great importance to Agnesian HealthCare and a focus of the work we do in our communities. With play and opportunities to stretch their imaginations, children grow and learn. Agnesian supports CMFDL as it provides unique developmental experiences combined with a thrill of discovery. ”

- Bob Fale / CEO, Agnesian HealthCare

“ We recognize the importance of supporting CMFDL as it provides our community with a high quality gathering facility for both children and adults, exposing them to art, culture and community! ”

- Nancy Witkowski / Community Relations, Grande Cheese

“ We gladly support the mission of the Children’s Museum, lending support through our in-kind contributions. It’s important for small businesses to consider affordable ways to support the community. ”

- Alan Hathaway / President, BrownBoots Interactive, Inc.
